If as is stated in para above, His Royal Highness did not visit the temple, there does not seem to be any necessity for incurring this charge at the present. The question is whether the Comptroller's funds accumulated at the credit of the temple.

DG 25/11/24 — Till the Special Duty Officer's report is received it cannot be stated whether the temple has any and what sum at its credit especially in view of the fact that the D.C. has said that the temple has not got sufficient funds at present (Vide para 3 of his letter). But it is said that H.R.H. will not visit the temple, the D.C may after his visit to Kandy be asked to review his proposals in his report.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Amildar of Seringapatam Taluk reports through the Sub Division Officer, French Rocks, that the Sepoys and Havildar, on duty in the Sri Ranganathaswami Temple, at Seringapatam, are badly in need of dress. It is stated that the dress was last supplied to them on 20th September 1914, that they have not been given any dress ever since, and in fact that they are at present doing duty with their private dress on, and look quite shabby. It is therefore urged that dress may be supplied to them immediately in view of the expected visit of H.R.H the Prince of Wales to the place.

2. An estimate for Rs.190/- therefor, prepared in communication with the Chief Commandant and received with the correspondence ending with the Sub Division Officer's Memo No.1094 of 20-21 dated 9-1-1921, is submitted herewith for favour of obtaining the immediate sanction of Government, under the circumstances stated above.

3. As the Temple has no sufficient funds at present at its credit, the charge may be met out of the Special allotment made for the Royal Visit, if it is not possible to meet it out of the current year's State Grant.

4. The vernacular papers on the subject are submitted herewith
